

Title: BLUES MAN

Artist: Alan Jackson

(Williams Jr.)

INTRO: G G Am-Am7 Am7 D D G |G|

NC G C C

He's just a singer, a natural born guitar ringer.

D D G G

Kind of a, clinger, to sad old songs.

G Am7 Am

He's not a walk behinder, he's a new note finder.

D G G

His name's a reminder, of a blues man that's already gone.

G C C

So he started drinkin', took some things that messed up his thinkin'.

D D G

He was sure sinkin', when she came along.

G Am7 Am

He was alone in the spot light, not too much left in sight.

D G G

She changed all that, one night, when she sang him this song.

G Am7 Am Am

Hey baby I love you. Hey baby I need you.

D G G

Hey baby you ain't got to prove to me you're some kind of macho man.

G Am7 Am

You've wasted so much of your life, runnin' through the dark nights.

D G |G|

Let me shine a little love light, down on that blues man.

Instrument: G G C

G C C

He got so sick from speedin', all the things they said he was needin',

D D G G

If he was to keep on pleasin', all of his fans.

G Am7 Am

He got cuffed on dirt roads. He got sued over no shows.

D G

She came an took all that old load, down off that old blues man. And he sang,

Am7 Am

Hey baby I love you too. Hey baby I need you.

D D G G

Hey baby I do get tired, of this travelin' band.

G Am7 Am

I'm over forty years old now, nights would be cold now,

D D G G

If you hadn't stuck it out, with this blues man.

G Am7 Am

He's over forty years old now, nights would be so cold now,

D D G G

If she hadn't hung around, with that blues man.
